

Colin Hancock

Professional Profile

1 Career to date

- EASA - Head of Department – Policy, Innovation & Knowledge, Certification Directorate – Germany, Since August 2022
- EASA - Regional Transport Aeroplanes – Section Manager – Germany, January 2017 – July 2022
- EASA - STC and Special Projects – Section Manager – Germany, September 2014 – December 2016
- EASA – MMEL Section Manager – Germany, December 2005 – August 2014
- Civil Aviation Authority – MMEL Surveyor – UK, April 2002 – November 2005
- Virgin Atlantic Airways – Reliability Engineer – UK, May 1999 – March 2002
- BAE Systems (Regional Aircraft) – Senior Maintenance Cost Engineer – France, June 1996 – May 1999
- BAE Systems (Regional Aircraft) – Senior Customer Services Engineer – UK, February 1993 – May 1996
- BAE Systems (Regional Aircraft) – Junior Technical Support Engineer – UK, July 1991 – January 1993

2 Education

- Award of EUR ING by European Federation of National Engineering Associations – June 2005
- Registered as a Chartered Engineer by the Engineering Council UK
- Bachelor's Degree, BEng Electrical & Electronic Engineering, University of Bath, UK - June 1991