Question:

Can I edit the information I inserted in my application after I submitted it?

Answer:

No, after submitting your application, you cannot change the information in your candidate profile or the answers to the pre-screening questions. Please ensure all information has been provided and that the answers to the questions are correct before submission.

Once submitted, no changes will be reflected for the specific position.

However, you can update your identification data (i.e., email address, telephone number, and address) at any time in your candidate profile.
